Title of the workshop: The Colors of Love

Evelis Velez – email address not required

Description: The workshop will consist of young artists exploring positive emotions and the colors associated with them. We will explore the difference between a parent's love, a friend's love and our love for humanity. Artists will be guided to express those colors in relation to the emotion. In this class we will find what color speaks to our artist directly and express it through the use of acrylic paint, sponges and a canvas. Colors are not only seen but felt.

Materials:

- Canvas - recommend size 11x14
- Sponge
- Acrylic paint tubes

Target Audience: Registered campers
