- Image Descriptions:

A single-panel comic strip. Fifteen cavemen set up to play football, covered in animal skins and scruffy hair, hunkering down at the line of scrimmage. A big, friendly Tyrannosaurus Rex stands in front of a smoking volcano with an inflated paper bag in hand, ready to pop it when the game starts. The caption reads: "A long time ago before the football drum for the snap at the line of scrimmage used by Deaf teams was invented..."
