

CAMP SOL OF THE DEAF

ONLINE INTERACTIVE FALL WORKSHOP

Francisca Rangel

Amy Aillon

" I am What I Am"

The goal of this workshop is for the BIPOC young and teen participants to analyze their self-identity. Those BIPOC participants will have a chance to have a self-identity and analyze who they are. They will have an opportunity to participate and interact with each other.

WHO CAN JOIN?

Age 9-12 (Time: 1pm to 2pm)

Age 13-17 (Time: 2pm to 3pm)

WHEN!

October 17th, 2020

WHERE?

Zoom (will be provided in an email)

HOW MUCH?

$15

Price Reduction!

TOPICS:

Self-identity (Who I Am)

Intersectionality (My layers of self-identity)

RSVP by October 13th

Workshop Information:

This is small class size. The BIPOC presenters are ASL-Certified Teachers. This workshop is only for one day. Encourage you to have high-speed internet. This workshop encourages BIPOC participants to have respect for others.

Registration: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/csd-fall-virtual-interactive-workshop-tickets-121751555179>

Questions? Contact at csdnj2016@gmail.com

All payments from this workshop proceed to go to Camp Fund